

That the summer months have palled society, is shown by the exodus from the city of the fashionables to the watering places, the mountains and to the cool heights on the other islands. Every steamer carries many to the mainland. The present week has also shown a steady departure for Wailua.

The concert for the benefit of the Iolani Guild at the Iolani College last night was well attended. Among the principals who gained merited applause were Mrs. George Macfarlane, Mr. Paul Isenberg, Miss Aldrich, Miss Whiting, Ernest Kaal and the Ellis boys.

Major Edward Davis, now visiting his daughter, Mrs. H. McK. Harrison, in this city, has been detailed for service in the military secretary's office at Washington.

Mr. and Mrs. Francis W. Smith are now in San Francisco. Mr. Smith having engaged in business there.

Miss Elphie Ellis leaves on the Mongolia for New York where she will remain permanently.

Mrs. W. W. Dimond and family have moved to the Dimond's Niu ranch for the Summer.

Mrs. Hundley and Miss Hundley are the guests of Mr. and Mrs. J. Alfred Magoon.

Mrs. Robert Brenham is occupying a cottage on Aloha lane, and will be at home on the second and fourth Thursdays.

Mr. and Mrs. A. G. Hawes, Jr., are domiciled at the Alexander Young Hotel.

Mrs. Gardner K. Wilder and Miss Barnes are at Kailana, Waikiki.

The many friends of Mr. Philip M. Lansdale will be interested to hear that with a friend, Mr. Hoag, he has bought out the old and well known firm of McAfee Brothers, Real Estate and Insurance Brokers, and that the new firm is now doing a conservative business in San Francisco as Hoag and Lansdale. Mr. Lansdale is not married yet. Miss Nichols, daughter of the Bishop is, however, much better from a trying attack of nervous prostration.

Mrs. Elizabeth Frazier announces the engagement of her daughter, Jessie Maud, to Mr. Joshua Kelly Brown, Jr.

Big crowds went down to Haleiwa yesterday and more will follow on the "Haleiwa Limited" this morning. Among those already at the hotel are Mr. and Mrs. Charles Deering, Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Boyd, Mr. and Mrs. Baird, Mr. and Mrs. Tenney. In Princess Kawanakoa's party will be the Misses Bradley and Miss Cunha.

The farewell reception and garden party given on Thursday afternoon at the British Consulate, King street, by Consul and Miss Hoare, was attended by official and fashionable Honolulu society. As a garden party the affair was a charming society event and one long to be remembered. A canopy was stretched overhead above the lawn as a protection against both sun and rain. Beneath the trees the punch bowl stood, and at small tables dainty refreshments were served. Throughout the reception the Ellis quintet played and sang. Consul and Miss Hoare were assisted in entertaining the guests by Mrs. T. Clive Davies, Mrs. W. L. Stanley, Mrs. Hawes, Miss Margaret Walker, Miss Danforth, Miss Claire Kelley, Mrs. J. O. Carter poured tea and Miss Jennie Parke presided at the coffee urn. Many regrets were expressed over the intention of the Consul and Miss Hoare to leave the islands and all extended the hope that they would not soon forget Hawaii. Among the guests were: Queen Liliuokalani, Princess Kalaniana'ole, Princess Kawanakoa, Mrs. Doie, Admiral and Mrs. Terry, Acting Governor Atkinson, French Consul Vizzavoni, Portuguese Consul Canavarro, Japanese Consul Miki Saito and Mme. Saito, the Chinese Consul and Mrs. Tso Fan and Secretary, Mr. and Mrs. Isenberg, Mr. and Mrs. J. O. Carter, Mr. and Mrs. Clive Davies, Mr. S. M. Damon, Mr. and Mrs. F. M. Hatch, Mrs. A. G. Mrs. J. W. W. Brewster is rapidly improving from the recent operation.

The fortnightly dance at the Moana Hotel on Friday evening was one of the attractive events of the week. The guests though small in numbers proved a congenial gathering, and dancing in the handsome reception parlor proved quite popular to the music of a Hawaiian quintet.

Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Lake entertained at dinner and later at a dancing party on Friday evening at the Alexander Young Hotel. The guests of honor were the officers of the Thetis, and wives of officers of the vessel. Dancing took place in the makai ballroom on the roof garden and a trolley ride completed the evening's pleasure.

Mr. and Mrs. Noel Paton, for many months guests at the Moana Hotel, departed on the Aorangi for Vancouver, whence they will start for England.

Mr. and Mrs. James G. Spencer entertained at breakfast at their Nuuanu Valley home on Sunday last, the guests being Mr. and Mrs. William G. Irwin, Mr. and Mrs. F. A. Schaefer, Mr. and Mrs. Hatch, Mr. and Mrs. Ivers and Col. Hawes.

Princess Kawanakoa is entertaining a house party today and tomorrow at the old cottage of Queen Liliuokalani at Wailua.

A GIRL.

If you want to make a winner of a modern magazine, Get the picture of a girl; Let it show upon the cover, done in purple, pink and green— Just the picture of a girl. Get a poem by somebody, with a limpid sort of rhyme, And a sentiment that borders on the tenderly sublime, But be sure that when you print it there goes with it every time Just the picture of a girl.

Get an article that touches on the doings of the courts, With the picture of a girl; And some other stuff on golf and bridge or any other sports, With the picture of a girl. Let another poem follow—possibly a triolet, Or a sonnet, or a ballad, but be sure with it you get This important decoration ere the type for it is set— Just the picture of a girl.

Get some stories—say a short one, with the action laid in France, And the picture of a girl; And perhaps a tale that tingles with historical romance— And the picture of a girl. If a serial is needed, see that each installment goes With a picture labeled "Helen," "Molly," "Gladys," "Jane" or "Rose;" With the anecdotes and jingles, little paragraphs and mots, Use the picture of a girl.

So, in short, to make a seller of a modern magazine, Get the picture of a girl; Never let an advertisement in your magazine be seen With no picture of a girl. If you're ever overcrowded, cut the verse and stories out, And omit the other matter if you have the slightest doubt, But be sure your every issue, if you know what you're about, Has the picture of a girl.

place. One of the young men in the party, who never rode a horse before, started on the fourteen-mile horseback trip last evening and may not partake of the Fourth of July dinner with the rest of the guests.

Lieut. and Mrs. Harry Newton, who were at Camp McKinley until a few weeks ago, have started for Fortress Monroe, Va., where the officer will take a course in advanced artillery practice.

Miss Juanita Beckley gave a dinner at the Young Hotel on Friday evening. The place cards were envelopes of red, the lettering being in white. Ribbons and bric-a-brac hung over the chairs. The guests were Prince and Princess Kawanakoa, Mr. and Mrs. Will Lewis, Misses Bessie and Louisa Bradley, Miss Alice Campbell, Miss Rosie Cunha, Miss Irene Dickson, Mr. A. R. Cunha, Mr. Cunha, Mr. Harry Cobb, Mr. Dickson and Mr. Ernest Parker.

A delightful pedro party was given on Wednesday afternoon, by Mrs. Milus Parkhurst, of Waikiki, the prizes being won by the following: Mrs. E. M. Boyd, first prize, a Chinese linen table cover; Miss Edna Kelley, consolation prize, a candle-stick; Miss McCrosson, booby prize, a paper weight.

Lot Kaulukou leaves on the Mongolia on July 8 for San Francisco where he expects to commence an operative career. It has been decided that he shall adopt the stage name of "Lot Sebastiane." Mrs. Annis Montague Turner, who has been training Mr. Kaulukou for the stage, has high hopes of a successful career for her pupil, and will accompany him to the mainland to start him right. Those who heard him in the past year in numerous amateur presentations feel assured he will give a good account of himself. At the Central Union church this evening Mr. Kaulukou will sing "A Dream of Paradise" by Hamilton Grey.

Miss Louise Bradley was the guest of honor on Tuesday evening at a birthday dinner given for her by Princess Kawanakoa. Pink was the prevailing color of the decorations for the table, comprising pink carnations, pink roses, pink ribbons and, maidenhair ferns. Among other guests present were Miss Alice Campbell, Miss Bessie Bradley, Miss Rosie Cunha, Acting Governor Atkinson, Mr. E. M. Watson, Mr. A. R. Cunha, Lieut. Slattery, U. S. A., Mr. Ernest Parker.

Miss Terry was hostess on Sunday last at a picnicking outing at Pearl Harbor, the Peterson cottage being used. The party went down to the Peninsula on the 3:15 train, and returned on the 9:30 or Haleiwa Limited train. A moonlight supper was served. Among the guests were Mr. and Mrs. Benson, Mr. and Mrs. Kimball, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Macfarlane, Mrs.

George Bliss, the Misses Macfarlane, Miss Jennie Giffard, Miss Nannie Winston, Miss Jessie Kaufman, Mr. Wright, Mr. Potter, Mr. Derby, Mr. I. Dillingham, Judge Lindsay, Mr. Terry, Mr. T. A. Hays.

Mr. and Mrs. William G. Irwin were the guests of honor at a delightful dinner given on Thursday evening by Prince and Princess Kawanakoa. An exceedingly pretty scheme of arrangement of flowers and the silver service formerly used by Kalakaua, made an attractive dinner table, about which were the following guests: Mr. and Mrs. E. D. Tenney, Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Macfarlane, Mr. and Mrs. Hatch, Miss Kaufman, Miss Winston, Mr. Bliss and Mr. Potter.

Cards were issued during the week announcing a masquerade ball to be given by Prince and Princess Kawanakoa on July 15 at the Moana Hotel, Waikiki, in honor of the Misses Bradley of California. The grand march will commence at 9:30 p. m. Each invitation card has a coupon which is to be presented by the guest on entering the ball-room, and on no account will a person be entitled to enter without having the coupon. Prizes are to be given for the handsomest and most original ladies' costumes and prizes for the same class of costume for the gentlemen. Intending maskers are already plunged deep into designing costumes and it is said that some very original ones will be displayed.

Charles L. Rhodes, city editor of the Honolulu Star, accompanied by Mrs. Rhodes, arrived in this city Tuesday on the Alameda for a five months' stay in this country. While in San Francisco they will be the guests of Mrs. Rhodes' sister and brother-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. M. W. Backus, 2865 Broderick street. Mr. Rhodes is an alternate to the Democratic National convention. He is awaiting word from the regular delegate, and will not make the trip to St. Louis at this time unless obliged to do so. In October he is due in Boston to attend the general Episcopal convention, to which he is a delegate for the diocese of Honolulu.—Chronicle.

Mrs. Jones, wife of Levin T. Jones, engineer officer of the United States steamship Thetis, at present in Honolulu waters, writes of good times in that part of the world. Dances, trips to the volcano, drives and horseback rides, card parties and teas make up a well-filled program and one that is being heartily enjoyed, despite tropical weather. In fact, that circumstance is quite ignored where pleasure is concerned. Mrs. Maxwell and Mrs. Meade, wives of officers of the Thetis, are also emphatic in their praise of Honolulu hospitality and good times. They, however, are talking of returning on a July transport. Mrs. Jones will not come home so soon. She says August is the earliest date she can set, and it is probable that she will remain longer.—Chronicle.

Ladies at Tennis.

On the Beretania court yesterday afternoon, in the ladies' doubles, Mrs. S. G. Wilder and Mrs. Ivers won from Mrs. Clive Davies and Miss Kathleen Ward by a score of 6-4, 7-5 and 6-0.

Sir Mortimer Durand, British ambassador to the United States, tasted his first mint julep the other day while in Winchester, Va. The seductive beverage made an instantaneous hit with the English diplomat, who promptly drank another. The incident suggests to a Baltimore man the reflection that, though a little julep now and then is relished by the best of men, a little goes a long way.

"Bobby, won't you kiss me?" "Naw." "Well, Bobby, may I kiss you?" "Yes, if you kiss me easy on top of my head."—Cincinnati Commercial-Tribune.
